ORTHOPEDIC SPECIALTY CERTIFICATION AND RE-CERTIFICATION EXAMINATION REVIEW

An orthopedic specialty review is scheduled for both the initial orthopedic specialty certification and the re-certification exams. All eligible doctors are encouraged to attend an examination review to maximize individual knowledge and skills.

The Texas Council of Chiropractic Orthopedists (TCCO) will conduct a three day 24 hour orthopedic review 18-20 September 2009 on the Campus of Parker Chiropractic College in Dallas, Texas. This review is presented in multiple choice questionnaires (MCQ) and objective structured clinical exam (OSCE) formats and will focus on material for both the initial orthopedic specialty diplomate certification examination and the re-certification exam for current orthopedic specialty certified diplomates that desire re-certification. Re-certification is a voluntary process. Additional review information may be found on the TCCO web site at www.texasCouncilofchiropracticorthopedist.org as well as the Academy web site.
